BLUEPRINT

Before the show

➔ Objectives Definition:

Clearly define your goals for the exhibition, such as generating leads, increasing brand awareness, launching new products, or networking.

➔ Budgeting:

Allocate a budget for booth space, design, promotional materials, travel, accommodation, and any other expenses.

➔ Booth Design:

Design the space to align with your brand and objectives. Make sure the messaging is clear and simple to understand exactly what you are promoting to the visitor. Consider engaging a professional designer for maximum impact.

Please feel free to contact our team for any assistance at hello@b2bgrowthhub.com regarding Content Creation, messaging, Banner design.

Promotional Materials:

Prepare brochures, flyers, business cards, Gift Vouchers and any digital content you plan to display or distribute. Ensure they are supplied to us more than 48hours in advance of the event in case you want to include in the show-bags.

Engagement and Networking:

Interactive Elements:

Incorporate unique interactive elements like demonstrations, contests, small games or VR experiences to engage visitors.

Promotional Items:

Prepare branded giveaways or promotional items that will attract visitors and leave a lasting impression.

Networking Events:

Identify and plan to attend relevant networking events or social gatherings around and during the show

Lead Capture:

Implement a system for efficiently capturing and managing leads, such as digital scanners or a dedicated app. Our Visitors will have a QR code on their badges, allowing exhibitors to scan it directly and save their contact information.

Breakout Area:

Utilize the breakout area for one to one meeting with your prospects.

On The Day

Daily Briefings:

Hold daily meetings with your team to discuss goals, schedules, and any necessary adjustments.

Active Engagement:

Avoid sitting on chairs at your booth; instead, stand up to appear approachable and ready to engage with visitors. Make eye contact with attendees passing by and greet them warmly. Engage in conversation by asking open-ended questions about their interests or needs related to your products or services.

Social Media Updates:

Periodically throughout the day, update your social media channels with show highlights to engage your audience online and in real-time. Don't forget to use relevant hashtags!

Informative Displays:

Create visually appealing displays that effectively communicate your brand message and offerings. Use clear signage, high-quality visuals, and concise messaging to capture visitors' attention and convey key information about your products or services.

Interactive Elements:

Incorporate interactive elements into your booth to create memorable experiences for visitors. This could include product demonstrations, interactive presentations, or hands-on activities that allow attendees to engage directly with your offerings.

Value-Added Content:

Offer valuable resources and information to visitors to enhance their experience at your booth. Provide informative brochures, whitepapers, or digital presentations that showcase your expertise and address common pain points or challenges faced by your target audience.

Networking Opportunities:

Take advantage of networking opportunities to connect with other exhibitors, industry professionals, and potential partners. Attend keynote speeches, success stories sessions, and speed networking events to expand your network and explore collaboration opportunities.

Utilize Technology:

Leverage technology to streamline processes and enhance engagement. Use NFC-enabled One Cards to capture visitor information efficiently and follow up with leads after the event. Embrace social media platforms to promote your participation in the expo and engage with attendees online.

Brand Awareness:

Ensure that you have booked your business for recorded Business Interviews, Radio Interviews, testimonial interview so we can promote your brands after the show.

- * Book your slot for Business Interviews, Radio Interviews, and testimonial interviews early on the event day, as they are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

Seminar:

Speak to organisers to reserve a 30-minute seminar slot to talk about your brand and product/services to increase awareness.

Follow-up is the Key!

Lead Follow-Up:

Prioritize and follow up on leads promptly with a phone call and personalised messages after the show.

Schedule Appointment:

Align a staff member to book online or face-to-face meetings with prospects in your diary.

Debrief Meeting:

Conduct a post-show meeting with your team to discuss what worked, what didn't, and lessons learned.

ROI Evaluation:

Analyse the success of your participation against your initial objectives and calculate your return on investment.
